REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Claims 1-20 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Regarding claim 1, the prior art does not suggest the assembly as claimed, including the combination of all the claimed elements, the combination including the locking member as claimed including the retaining portion secured with the engaging portion of the insulative housing, the supporting portion engaged with the cover, and the pressing portion movably received in the pair of passages of the cover as claimed and including latch section as claimed. Regarding claim 17, the prior art does not suggest the assembly as claimed, including the combination of all the claimed elements, the combination including the deflectable locking member including a retention portion fixed to the housing, a supporting portion seated upon the cover and moveable along a front-to-back direction when said locking member is depressed, and a latch section located between said retention portion and said supporting portion and moveable in a vertical direction as claimed. Regarding claim 19, the prior art does not suggest the assembly as claimed, including the combination of all the claimed elements, the combination including the locking member including a retention portion fixed to one of the housing and the cover, a supporting portion opposite to said retention portion and seated upon the other of the housing and the cover and moveable along a front-to-back direction when said locking member is depressed, and a latch section moveable in a vertical direction as claimed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
